NREL grid research is led by the Power Systems Engineering Center under the direction of Ben Kroposki and the Grid Planning and Analysis Center under the direction of Kate Anderson. These centers are part of the Energy Systems Integration directorate, led by Associate Laboratory Director Juan Torres.

Narec, since 2014 known as the National Renewable Energy Centre, is a part of the Offshore Renewable Energy (ORE) Catapult, a UK technology innovation and research centre for offshore wind power, wave energy, tidal energy and low carbon technologies. The National Renewable Energy Centre is based in Blyth, Northumberland.

(The Center Square) - Opposition to renewable energy projects such as wind and solar have increased at the local and state levels nationwide, according to several reports. In 2023, there were 73% more local restrictions and 111% more state-level restrictions on solar and wind energy projects than there were in 2022, according to an analysis ...

Many members of the Information and Communications Technology (ICT) industry are taking a strong leadership role in sustainability. To complement efficiency efforts, companies are now incorporating previously unprecedented amounts of renewable energy into their data center energy use using a wide variety of creative methods, depending on the company energy ...

Renewable Supply and Demand. Renewable energy is the fastest-growing energy source globally and in the United States. Globally: About 11.2 percent of the energy consumed globally for heating, power, and transportation came from modern renewables in 2019 (i.e., biomass, geothermal, solar, hydro, wind, and biofuels), up from 8.7 percent a decade prior (see figure ...
