

Solar company warranty

A solar panel warranty is a guarantee that a solar panel manufacturer or solar panel installer gives a customer, offering protection for panel reliability, production output, and more. Warranties provide financial security for consumers, as they can protect your solar panel system from defects, performance issues, or other concerns.

The closure of Titan Solar Power has left many homeowners in a precarious situation, especially those who relied on the company's 25-year workmanship warranty. With Titan no longer in operation, this warranty is now void, leaving numerous households without the promised long-term support and protection for their solar installations.

Credible solar providers will explain the claim procedure before signing the solar panel warranty contract. If the company refuses to provide details, it's a red flag. While looking for solar warranties, check their costs. Extended contracts may add to the upfront cost but can provide valuable peace of mind and financial protection.
